FROM THE MINISTER

It is time again for General Assembly! I will be one of the many participating on-line and I invite you to be too. Please also consider volunteering to be a delegate (we will choose the person at our annual meeting).

Being a delegate allows you to give voice to Cedarhurst in important areas of the Unitarian Universalist faith. We have many decisions and social justice statements to be made and this is your chance to have a voice in how we run and express our Unitarian Universalist faith.

You can also register and be a participant attending fantastic worship services. From morning services to the Service of the Living Tradition to the Bridging Ceremonies these are incredible worship services that will leave you inspired and blessed.

The Ware Speaker is Dr. Ibram X. Kendi, an exciting author and activist who is known for his books How to Be an Antiracist and Stamped From The Beginning: A Definitive History of Racist Ideas in America.

And if all of this is not enough there are workshops and sessions where you can learn a new skill such as bring outreach ideas and stewardship ideas and processes. The programs will also invite you to deeply explore our faith, how it is expressed today and into the future. Programs are fun and enlightening - you can see a list here <https://www.uua.org/ga/program>

Because it is online, you can attend from the comfort of your home, under a tree, or between errands. GA is an exciting time and participating on-line can give you a sense of how it will be to attend next year in Pittsburgh.

I always leave inspired, excited about our faith, and with a long view of Unitarian Universalism when I participate in General Assembly. It is truly a time to be part of our greater faith.

Grace and Peace,

Rev. Amy

The Poor People’s Campaign: A National Call for Moral Revival The Poor People’s Campaign: A National Call for Moral Revival is mobilizing nationwide to bring people to Washington D.C. for the Mass Poor People’s and Low-Wage Worker’s Assembly and Moral March on Washington and to the Polls. We are standing together to challenge the interlocking injustices of systemic racism, poverty, ecological devastation, the military economy and militarism and to change the distorted national narrative that wants to blame people for being poor rather than the policies that continue to oppress us all. We will be marching to build the power we need to make the policy makers say yes when they want to say no. We are assembling and marching to call for the enactment of the Third Reconstruction Resolution that demands the U.S. fully address poverty and low wages from the bottom up.

As a Mobilization Captain, I have committed to contacting my friends, family, organizations and activists to go to the Assembly and March with me. Will you join me in going to the Moral March or be a Mobilization Captain? There will be transportation from Westminster to the Assembly and March. Learn more about the Mass Poor People’s and Low-Wage Worker’s Assembly and Moral March on Washington and to the Polls Here. This link also has information on being a Mobilization Captain and sign-up.
